PRAISE FOR BOOSTER EDITION FROM OTHERS

Contemporaries Congratulate Press On Splendid Booster Edition. San Francisco Call Gives Good Notice. Papers Sent Out Daily.

Brother W. O. White, the editor and owner of the Ukiah Press, has issued a special edition of thirty-two pages that is a credit to him and to the community in which it is published. Aside from the regular news edition it contains many columns exploiting the resources of Mendocino county by giving nearly every detail of its varied industries and advantages. The edition is well edited and printed and will prove to be valuable information to send away from home. --Calistogian, Calistoga, Cal

A copy of the Republican Press big booster edition has reached this office. After looking over it carefully and reading the articles touching on the resources and possibilities of Mendocino county, we consider it the best of the kind yet issued. It is well arranged typographically, and the writeups of the different sections are conservative and must appeal to the intelligence of home-seekers. Too often much harm is done a community by the extravagant assertions of its boosters, but the Repbican Press has rather erred on the other side and left many advantages of the county to be discovered by those looking for a desirable location in which to cast their lot. Point Arena and vicinity fared well in the big edition, J. C. Halliday, probably the best informed person in the community on creameries and their value to Point Arena, has a well written article treating on the dairy business, and ye editor gives a brief, conservative writeup of the possibilities of this section omitting much that might be said in its favor. This paper should be widely circulated, and our people appreciate the efforts of Editor W. O. White to propely place our county before the country and mail copies of the big edition to friends. Hundreds are looking toward California, and with a little encouragement the Mendocino coast should get its quota of those seeking new homes. Men of intelligence, thrift and a little capital to support themselves and families for a while would do well here by opening up new avenues of industry.—Point Arena Record.

A Most Cerditable Edition.

The special booster and promotion edition of the Republican Press came to hand last week and denotes very creditable work for the printer, and is a fine advertisment for the entire county. Nearly every section of the county is well represented by half tones and writeups, stating what each locality is particularly adapted for. The members of the Press force were of the opinion that their work was ended when the last paper was printed, but they now report that they are just as deep in work as ever, for besides the usual mail they send out each week, thousands of copies have been sent throughout the Eastern States. No doubt this booster will be an incentive in bringing a number of residents to this county, as it has dealt fairly with every section and was a boost to the entire county from the valley to the coast. —Mendocino Beacon.

The Ukiah Repbulican Press has issued a special edition of 32 pages in which the resources of Mendocino county are splendidly set forth. If residents of that section are alive to their interests they will take the trouble to send copies of that number of the Republican-Press to the people they know—people who are strangers to California—in the Eastern Middle and what are known as the Western States of the American Uuion. There is room for a few million more home-seekers in this Pacific State. "First come, first served."—Napa Register.

Editor W. O. White of Ukiah, is to be congratulated upon the Booster and Development number he has just turned out. It contains a description of the different parts of Mendocino county, the object of which may be described in quoting the headlines of the title page:

"Glorious Mendocino County—a story of the present and future of one of the most inviting sections of northern California; the rich and productive lands and properties combine to create wealth for the progressive homeseeker, investor and capitalist, a rich county with rare advantages and many opportuntes; a section of the Golden State where business affairs are representative because of the management and direction of five able and intelligent men sitting as the Board of Supervisors."

The edition, composed of 32 pages, bears the emblem of efficient press work, careful make-up and good editing. Copies of this issue will be mailed to any part of the United States upon receipt of 15 cents, 8 copies for $1.—Fort Bragg Advocate.

The Republican Press special edition came out last Friday and was fully up to all expectations. It was the best edition typographically and in all other respects that we have seen for some time Special editions mean a great deal of hard work and the Press is to be complimented on the spirit of enterprise shown.—Ukiah Dispatch Democrat.

The special booster edition of the Ukiah Republican-Press was issued last week. It is probably the best special edition ever printed in this county and is a credit to both the paper and Mendocino county.

There are 32 pages of well written matter describing every locality in our county. The Willits writeup is good and fair. There are none of the extravagent statements which appear in many special editions, and for this reason this number is the best kind of literature to send to people who are interested in Mendocino. Orders for this number can be left at this office, or sent direct to Ukiah. The price is 15 cents a copy for the paper wrapped and ready for mailing.—Willits News.

The Ukiah Republican Press last week issued a thirty two page "booster' edition, setting forth the advantages of Mendocino county. The number is well written, is full of beautiful and interesting Mendocino county views and pictures, is printed on good paper and is of a grade of typography of which the Press may well be proud. Those Mendocino people are "booters" and those of them that run the newspaprs are well in the front of the crowd.—Lakeport Bee.

MISS VIC LYNCH CALLED BY DEATH

Miss Victorine Lynch passed away in this city Friday after a lingering illness. Her condition had finally become so critical that an operation was decided on but her condition was so weakened that it was of no avail. The funeral was held from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hagans Sunday afternoon, Rev. Moore preaching a touching funeral sermon.

The deceased was born March 2, 1886, in this city and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Lynch. She had received her education in the local schools and was for seven years employed in the telephone office for several years of which time she was in charge of the office. For sometime past she had been a deputy in the office of County Auditor J. J. Mathews.

The deceased was very popular her smile and cheerful disposition having won her many friedns. Besides the bereaved parents the surviving members of the family are: Martin of Fort Bragg, Roy of Sonoma, and Ernest, Bert, Llyod, Wanda, Esther and and Mrs. W. B. Hagans, of this city.

Many beautful floral tributes were sent by the friends of the deceased.

ODD FELLOWS WILL CELEBRATE

Ukiah Lodge No. 174, I O O F, is planning to celebrate the anniversary of Odd Fellowship in grand style on Tuesday evening, April 29, at their hall in this city. W. O. White, J. W. Eversole and C. B. Hopkins have been appointed a committee of arrangements and report that negotiations are being made to have Grand Master C. L. Synder here that evening to deliver an address on Odd Fellowship. There will be a program, cards, dancing and refreshments Members and visiting Odd Fellows are particularly requested to be present. A few guests will be invited for the occasion.

CUPID GETS BUSY

The following marriage licenses were issued during the past week: Maurice D. Havener and Carla M. Norwall: Karl Wirtanen and Hilga Ritonieni; Clarence C. Montgomery and Florence May McDonald; Avin C. Ray and Edna E. Van Zandt; Arthur Wilson and Rose Howard; James B. Bates and Lundy M. Rice; G. M. Smith and Marguerite K. Vaughan.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES

J. S. Corrigan for many years a resident of the coast section of this county, died at San Diego last week The deceased was well liked in this county and leaves many friends to mourn his loss.

MARRIAGE LICENSES PER EXPRESS OFFICE

Express Agent A. W. Custer claims the record for Wells Fargo for any old job, even if he cannot always compete with the parcels post prices. Only recently a Chinaman was shipped from Mexico to Canada under bonds through the United States in care of the express company. Tuesday Agent Custer received from the Willits office an application for a marriage license to be returned on the next train. Custer maintains that he had never bought but one marriage license and that that was years ago and he had got out of the habit. For the glory of Fargo however he started out and applied at all of the county offices until he found cupid in the clerks office. He got the license and just as he was coming out of the courthouse with it in his hard he met his wife. He had a very narrow escape but managed to get the license to Willits and the groom who forgot was able to get married on time Custer says that he now has he habit and will be willing to donate his commission just to get to buy the licenses.

A FREAK CHERRY LIMB

George Lambert brought in a freak this week in the shape of flat cherry limbs. The limbs have grown out in a ribbon shape and while nearly an inch wide are not more than a quarter of an inch thick. Blossom buds came out on the ribbon like limbs. Horticulturist Banks explains this freak by the fact that through some erron in nature the limbs did not receive the proper amout of nourishment and says that it is found on grape vines and fruit trees.

TELEPHONE MEN GET RAISE

The outside men in the employ of the local telephone office were awarded an increase of salary of twenty five cents a day on the 28th. The raise takes effect from January 1 of this year and they will receive checks for the back amount. Needless to say that they are all wearing a large smile.

BUM DAY FOR FISHERMER

April 1 was all fools day among the fishermen. About half the town took a chance the first day but while several limit catches are reported no large fish were brought in. Tuesday was windy and cold and the finy tribe preferred to stay under water.

AGRICULTURAL COURSE AT HIGH

Dr. Stouts' lots near the local high school have been secured for the use of the agricultural classes and the students are now busy farming.

WOODLEY GETS FIVE YEARS

J. R. Woodley was sentenced to five years in San Quentin Monday afternoon by Judge White. Attorneys Held and Stingley who represented Woodley have given notice that the case will be appealed.

HUTCHISON'S HELD THEIR CRYSTAL WEDDING MON.

Popular Couple Celebrate Fifteen Years of Wedded Life Surrounded by Many Friends. Numerous Presents Received by Them.

On Monday evening Ukiah witnessed one of the swellest social events of the season and in fact one that will remain as a memory of the social doings. It was the anniversary of the crystal wedding of Mr and Mrs. Robert L. Hutchison and about 150 attended and entered into the festivities of the evening. The banquet room of the I. O. O. F. hall was used as a reception room where the popular couple greeted their friends. A splendid program was rendered a prominent part being taken by the daughters of the Hutchison household.

Later came the wedding ceremony which was a model of its kind. J. W. Preston acted as minister and the bride was becomingly gowned in pink wearing a trailing veil of old Irish point. It is reported that the costume was that worn at the wedding fifteen years ago. Her bashfulness and sweet smile won the approval of all and she was voted one of the handsomest brides ever seen in the city. The groom also wore the full dress costume of the years gone bye in addition to the flowing scarlet beard that adorned his manly vigsage when he was emulating John L. and winning battles with Cupid.

After the wedding ceremony congratulations were extended and Bob and Mattie were properly saluted by their many friends. The concensus of opinion seemed to be that Bob had done remarkably well and that Mattie was not entitled to any sympathy for renewing a bond that had existed for fifteen years especially after being so intimately acqainted with the few good qualities and many short comings of the defendant.

As a tribute to the popualrity of his happy couple their friends had brought offerings of cut glass and one side of the room was lined with delicate creations of the glass cutters art which sparkled under the electric lights like a table covered with diamonds. In fact it was a display of cut glass far beyond the limits of any jewelery store.

At 9:30 supper was announced and the guests formed in a line and marched to the Palace hotel where a nine course wedding supper was served. The menu was complete and the service perfect and the repast was thoroughly enjoyed. After the small blacks had been served toasts and speeches and stories were in order and until long after midnight merriment reigned supreme. When the gduests finally departed the bride and groom were overwhelmed with congratulations and everyone voted Mr. and Mrs. Hutchison royal entertainers and if a small portion of the wishes for a long and happy life come true they will still be celebrating diamond weddings in the next century.

The menu at the banquet was as follows: Crab salad, Palace; consomme a la Hutchison; tenderloin of sole tartar sauce; asparagus tips au gratin; fried young duck; plum pudding brandy sauce, demi tasse, cheese, nuts and fruit.

TELEPHONE LINE TO REDWOOD VALLEY

F. A. Yates was down from Calpella Wednesday and reports that the rural telephone line in Redwood valley is soon to be a reality and expects to be talking over it in thirty days. The organization will be known as the Redwood Valley Rural Telephone company and applications for a franchise will be made to the supervisors next week. The ranches of Nelson, Requa, Kirk and A. L. Ford, W. D. L. Held, F. A. Yates, Finnish colony, Louis Hellmann and E. L. Cunningham will be on the line. Louis Hardie of this city, manager of the local telephone company, has subscribed to the company.

WIFE FOLLOWS HER HUSBAND TO GRAVE

Mrs. Sarah Weldon died at her home in this city Tuesday night after having been in poor health for some time. Her husband died on March 23rd. The remains were taken to Potter valley for interment and the funeral services were held at the M E Church south in that city yesterday, Rev J E Moore of this city preaching the funeral sermon. The deceased had resided in Potter valley for many years and had moved to Ukiah some years ago with her husband.

Five sons and six daughters survive her—Mrs. Laura Lierly, Mrs. Addie Spottswood, Mrs. Clara Adams, Mrs. James Eddie, Mrs. Wiley Pickle, Mrs. Jake Wattenberger, Homer, Russel and Henry Spencer of Potter and Ira of Foresthill and Dr. William Spencer of Portland. The deceased was a very estimable woman and leaves many friends to join the family in the sorrow of her loss.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jamison and daughter returned Sunday from San Francisco, Mrs. Alice Cox accompaning them home. George had his car over hauled and fore doors put on. It is now in perfect shape.

NOTES FROM OUR LOCAL ADVERTISERS

The shoe window at the City of Ukiah has been a strong drawing card this week on account of the exhibition of the famous Walkover man. The little mannikin walks with measured tread carefully stepping over the latest lasts in shoes of this celebrated brand. A pair of shoes will be given to the lucky guesser who comes closest to figuring the number of miles the Walkover man makes in 12 hours.

Hutchison & Roeder are displaying a window full of the latest in Morris chairs. This chair is controlled by a button and the angle of the back can be changed by the occupant of the chair by simply pressing the button.

J. R. Mathews reports that the Rexall remedies are proving popular with his customers and that the sales are increasing daily.

Louis Hofman of the C. Hofman Co. reports that the canned goods week was a popular one with the customers of the store and that a record was made in the sales of these lines. A strong effort is being made by the manufactures of canned goods to get the public to using more of them and it is found that wherever a trial is made they are found satisfactory.

HARTMAN FOUND GUILTY

In the case of H. E. Hartman of Fort Bragg who was charged with failure to support a minor child the jury found him guilty after being out only about ten minutes. They recommended however that he be placed on probation as long as he paid the amount necessary to his wife to support their child. Judge White will pass sentence Saturday morning at 10 Preston & Preston represented Hartman and District Attorney Duncan the people.

T. B. Wilson, Indian agent at Round valley, was in town this week on his way home from a visit in San Francisco.

Recorder E. E. Holbrook and George Anderson visited in San Francisco this week.

A DEED AND A WORD

A little stream had lost its way
Amid the grass and fern;
A passing stranger scooped a well,
Where weary men might turn;
He walled it in, and hung with care
A ladle at the brink;
He thought not of the deed he did,
But judged that all might drink.
He passed again, and lo! the well,
By summer never dried,
Had cooled ten thousand parching tongues,
And saved a life beside.

A nameless man, amid a crowd
That thronged the daily mart,
Let fall a word of hope and love,
Unstudied, from the heart;
A whisper on the tumult thrown,
A transitory breath—
It raised a brother from the dust,
It saved a soul from death.
O germ! O fount! O word of love!
O thought at random cast!
Ye were but little at the first,
But mighty at the last.

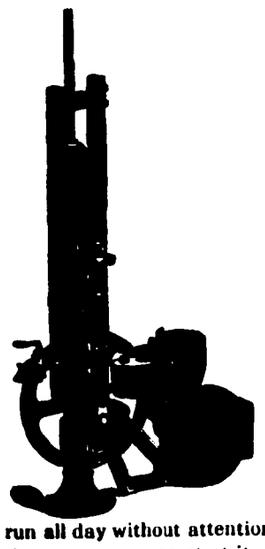
WATER—WATER—WATER

Wouldn't it be a good idea to begin to put in that small pumpint plant to provide water for the stock, garden and house right away before the early garden begins to dry up and give only half a crop?

Remember it does not cost anything to come down and figure with us. Of course we sell to everybody. It is not true that you have to be a member of the Club in order to buy from us at lower prices than you can get any place n Mendocino County. We believe that after we have bought goods they are ours and that we have the right to sell them for any price we choose. We do not accept exclusive agencies for goods that we cannot sell.



We can sell you the very best gasoline engine that money can build and save you money on the deal. We handle the best pumps, several standard makes. Our prices on pipe connot be cut under and leave expeuses for the dealer trying it.

We are prepared to equip you complete with an electric outfit for pumping or any other purpose.

Talking of water for the house and garden and a windmill supply, of course we could sell sell you the best windmill made but did you ever think of putting in one of these little gas engines. Look at the cut. It is made like an automobile engine and will run as well. It will run all day without attention. Just feed it a little gasoline or distillate Any woman can start it. Always cool water to drink. No waiting for the wind. No expense for repairs. Come in and let us show you just how it wil work. Some people tell us they would not be bothered with a windmill on the place since these engines come to town.

A QUEER VIEW OF NEW YORK.

Its Delicatessen Life as an Englishman Observed It.

You have to pay 10 cents in New York for a chicken sandwich, and then it is usually made of turkey. You pay 5 cents for a ham sandwich, and then you have no idea what it is made of. I was in the delicatessen trade in New York for three weeks, and I have my suspicions. For 25 cents you can have a club sandwich. That is made of toast and chicken-turkey and bacon, all hot and very good. It is well worth the extra expense, because the smell of the bacon disguises that of the chicken. American bacon is not good. It is nearly always sold in glass bottles, as we sell jam, which prevents its getting away. Personally I prefer its flavor to that of their chicken, because I was in a hospital once, and I hate being reminded of it.

There are as many delicatessen stores in New York as there are wine shops in Paris or tailors in the city of London. To millions of good New Yorkers the most dazzling kind of orgy is to spend the evening in a cinema theater, which costs 5 cents, and then go to a delicatessen store and have a ham sandwich. For the rest of the week they live upon dill pickles. Dill pickles are what we call gherkins, and they are far and away the most popular article of food in New York. You can get one for a cent. A really big and juicy one, which will do you for breakfast, with a bit over for lunch, costs 2 cents. The people of New York are simple and long suffering. The existence of the delicatessen store is the proof of it. In no other trade in the world can you make so large a profit with so little truth.—London Truth.

A STORY OF MANSFIELD.

The Great Actor Was Peculiar and Rather Inconsistent.

Richard Mansfield was peculiar if we believe half the things we have heard about him, but he was appreciative of favors, though he had a queer way of showing it.

"One had to be careful about helping him," said an actor who had played with Mansfield for years and who greatly admired him. "When I joined his company the stage manager told me to get up in Mansfield's lines, so to be able to prompt him if he forgot. He did one night in 'Cyrano,' and I gave him the word when he was floundering around. He took it and went on. But when he came off he gave me a terrible scolding. Never in his life had he been so insulted. Was I an actor? Did I know the ethics of the business that I, a mere support, should give the word to the star?

"I said nothing, but waited. The very next night in the same play and almost the same scene he went up again. I stood still. He looked at me, but I said nothing. In some way he got through, and when he came off I got it again. Never had he been so insulted. One of his actors let him flounder and never came to his rescue. Did I call myself an actor? Did I know and so forth? Then I gently reminded him that he had forbidden me ever to help him again. He looked at me, grunted three times and turned and went to his dressing room."—New York Telegraph.

Disraeli and Fame.

Our note on the genius who mistook Whistler for a star hailing from the music 'alls reminds a correspondent of a still more weird identification. Lord Houghton told the story: "I walked with Gladstone on Tuesday, and when he left me a gentleman came up and said, 'Might I ask if that was Mr. Disraeli?' Such is fame!"

Real fame, however, was once the portion of Disraeli. Lady Dorothy Nevill recalls how Beaconsfield once told her of an encounter with a cabman. He jumped into the cab, and the driver at once opened the trapdoor and remarked: "I know who you are, sir, and I have read all your books bar 'Lothair.'" The "dizzy" heights of fame!—London Standard.

It Made a Difference.

"If I ever get hold of Binks I'll thrash him so that his mother won't recognize him."

"What's the matter?"

"He's been slandering me. He says that I beat him out of $5 in a poker game."

"Not at all. I heard the remark myself."

"What did he say?"

"He said that you beat him out of $5,000 in a wheat deal."

"Oh, well, then, I suppose it is all right. I hardly thought he was the kind of man to go around telling stories that reflected on my character."—Life.

Successful Expedient.

"I tried to sing my youngest boy to sleep," said Senator Sorghum, "but it wouldn't work. Then I told him a story, and that wouldn't work either."

"How did you get him to sleep?"

"My wife came to the rescue with one of her clever suggestions. I delivered one of my speeches to him."—Washington Star.

Spiteful.

Edith—So you are really engaged at last. I'm awfully glad to hear it, dear. Gladys—Yes, I was sure you would be. You have less competition now.—London Mail.

Dangerous to the Diaphragm.

Jack—Reggie imagines that he is a lady killer. Ethel—Well, he isn't far wrong. We girls almost die laughing at him.—Boston Transcript.

We are best of all led to men's principles by what they do.—Butler.

What's the price of a good suit of clothes?

TWENTY-FIVE dollars. You can buy our clothes for less than that—$20, $18; you can pay more than that—we have very fine clothes at $27.50, $30. But $25 is a good average price; most men who appreciate good quality and style in clothes, good tailoring and fit are willing to pay as much as $25.

Hart, Schaffner & Marx

suits at $25 will surprise you; particularly if you've been accustomed to going to a custom tailor to have clothes made to measure; more particularly if you've patronized the so-called low-priced tailor; most particularly if you're getting what you think are made-to-measure clothes at $25 or less.

You'll get all-wool fabrics; trimmings, linings and other materials of a high grade; tailoring of a very high order—the things that make a suit wear well, and keep shapely. You'll get the value of best style standards and originality of design; you'll get clothes that fit you well.

And you'll gain from $10 to $20, either in greater value at the price; or lower price for similar value.

Better see how true this is; $25 is a price you can afford, and you'll say so when you see the clothes. Better come and look at the new spring styles
